OneCoin Remission

If you purchased OneCoin cryptocurrency between 2014 and 2019 and experienced a net loss of your investment when accounting for any completed withdrawals, you may be a potential victim eligible to receive compensation in this matter.

Why did I receive this notice?

You received this notice because you were identified as a potential victim in this matter. Between 2014 and 2019, Ruja Ignatova and Karl Sebastian Greenwood, co-founders of OneCoin Ltd., and others, orchestrated a large, international cryptocurrency investment scheme defrauding investors from around the globe. The scheme involved the marketing and sale of fraudulent cryptocurrency, resulting in significant financial losses for victims worldwide.

The United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York filed a number of OneCoin-related prosecutions under case numbers 1:17-CR-00556 and 1:17-CR-00630. Several key figures involved in the scheme have been sentenced, and the United States Attorney's Office in the Southern District of New York pursued criminal forfeiture of property derived from the proceeds of the fraud scheme. Upon the issuance of a final order of forfeiture, the net proceeds of those forfeited assets will be available to compensate victims through the remission process.

The United States has retained Kroll Settlement Administration LLC to assist with the administration of this remission process. Under the regulations codified at 28 C.F.R. Part 9, victims of an offense underlying the forfeiture who have incurred a monetary loss of a specific amount, as demonstrated by documentary evidence, may be eligible for remission.
